

"Words into Music"

Carson City Symphony Concert

Guest Soloist Stephanie Sant'Ambrogio, violin

The Carson City Symphony, directed by David Bugli, presents "Words into Music" on Sunday, April 23, at 4:00 p.m., at the Carson City Community Center's Bob Boldrick Theater, 851 E. William Street in Carson City.

The concert features violinist Stephanie Sant'Ambrogio performing Poème for Violin and Orchestra by Earnest Chausson and Hector Berlioz' Reverie and Caprice. Rita Geil will read poetry related to these pieces.

The orchestral premiere of Steven Rosenhaus' *JFK: A Profile, will be conducted by the composer. The work was written in commemoration of the 100th anniversary of John F. Kennedy's birth (1917). His words are narrated by Rita Geil.

The Three-cornered Hat, by Manuel de Falla, will open the concert. Members of STRAZZ, Carson City Symphony's advanced youth string ensemble, will join the orchestra in two pieces on the program.

The Carson City Symphony Chorus, under the direction of Michael Langham, will perform "Alleluia" by Eric Whitacre. Whitacre, an internationally respected choral composer, grew up and studied in western Nevada.

Consort Canzona early music instrumental ensemble will perform in the lobby beginning at 3:00 p.m.

Tickets are $15 general admission; $12 for seniors, students, and Symphony Association members; and free for children age 18 and under. Tickets will be available in advance at Carson City Visitors Bureau, 716 N. Carson Street; online at CCSymphony.com; by mail; and at the door.

Principal sponsor of this concert is The Change Place, a unique total wellness center, 2814 N. Carson St. The concert is also supported by public funds through a grant from the Nevada Arts Council, a state agency, and the National Endowment for the Arts, a federal agency, and by private donations.
