

Carson City Symphony Opens 34th Season

Opening Concert with Violin Soloist Carla Trynchuk, Oct. 22

The Carson City Symphony, directed by David Bugli, will open its 34th season on Sunday, October 22, 2017, at 4:00 p.m., with a concert at the Carson City Community Center's Bob Boldrick Theater, 851 E. William Street in Carson City. The concert features guest violin soloist Carla Trynchuk.

Tickets are $15 general admission; $12 for seniors, students, and Symphony Association members; and free for youth age 18 and under. Tickets are on sale at the Nevada Day Office, 716 N. Carson St.; online at CCSymphony.com; or at the door. Season tickets at discounted prices are available by mail (see form in this newsletter).

The program includes Aethelinda by Jeffrey S. Bishop, Peer Gynt Suite No. 1 by Edvard Grieg, Hungarian Dances Nos. 5 and 6 by Johannes Brahms, and Concerto for Violin and Orchestra by Jean Sibelius. Pre-show entertainment in the lobby by the Symphony Flute duo, Edith Isidoro-Mills and Carol Grenier, begins at 3:00 p.m.

Originally from Canada, violinist Carla Trynchuk has performed as soloist with orchestras and in recitals throughout North America and in Europe, Asia, and Australia. A graduate of the Juilliard School of Music in New York, she is Professor of Music and Director of the String Program at Andrews University in Michigan.

The Sunday concert is part of Daniel Pearl World Music Days, an annual global event affirming the ideals of tolerance, friendship, and shared humanity, inspired by the life and work of journalist and musician Daniel Pearl. It also celebrates National Arts and Humanities Month, a coast-to-coast collective celebration of culture in America.

The 2017-18 concert season is supported by a grant from the Nevada Arts Council and the National Endowment for the Arts.

"Meet The Soloist" Preview

A concert preview on Oct. 22 begins at 3:15 p.m. in the Sierra Room. It will include discussions by Conductor David Bugli with soloist Carla Trynchuk about the concert, composers, and music.

Artist-in-Residence Workshop with Carla Trynchuk - Thursday, October 19

Carla Trynchuk will lead an Artist-in-Residence workshop for STRAZZ, advanced students of the Symphony's Youth Strings Programs who are learning Dvořák's American String Quartet. The workshop, on Thurs., Oct. 19, will be at the Carson High Band Room from 6:15 to 8:00 p.m. It is free and open to the public.

Ms. Trynchuk and Dr. Brian Fox, Concertmaster of the Carson City Symphony and Director of Orchestras for the Carson City School District, will perform a violin and viola duet.

Ms. Trynchuk will also discuss the Violin Concerto by Jean Sibelius. She will play excerpts from the solo violin part of the concerto and discuss its history, style, and composer.

The workshop is a partnership between the Carson City Symphony Association and the Carson City School District, and is funded in part by a grant from the Nevada Arts Council.

Rosemary Nebesky Scholarship

We are proud to announce the second annual instrumental music scholarship for Carson City students, age 5 to 17. The scholarship was established by a generous gift from Jennifer and John Webley in memory of Rosemary Nebesky, former board member and friend of the Carson City Symphony Association.

The award of $250 to $1,000 is to further the student's music education. It can be used for lessons, workshop, summer camp, master class, etc. Funds will be paid to the teacher or program.

The application form can be downloaded at CCSymphony.com, and is available from school music teachers. Completed applications must be received by Tuesday, Nov. 15.
