

ON THE JAZZY SIDE

SUNDAY, FEBRUARY 28, 2016

SYMPHONY CONCERT FEATURES
JAZZ SINGER MADELINE EASTMAN

Carson City Symphony presents "On the Jazzy Side" on Sunday, February 28, 2016, at 4:00 p.m. at the Carson City Community Center's Bob Boldrick Theater, 851 E. William Street in Carson City.

"Fresh, arresting and electric" are the words that have been used to describe our featured guest soloist Madeline Eastman. Ms. Eastman has long been heralded for her vocal gifts, interpretive savvy, and irrepressible sense of adventure while performing her bold interpretations of The Great American Songbook. Her performances have earned her a spot on the coveted Downbeat Annual Critics Poll over five times. The LA Times called her "A consummate, inventive, endlessly entertaining artist at work." The JazzTimes said, "Eastman is an inveterately unpredictable traveler who never fails to take us to magical places."

Eastman will perform some of her favorite songs, including four selections off her upcoming Metropole Orchestra recording arranged by Jeff Beal for orchestra. We have added a full sax section, extra trumpet, trombone, and drum set!

The program also includes works by composers who showed an interest in American jazz – Shostakovich's Second Waltz and Prokofiev's Romeo and Juliet Suite – and Joplin's Bethena ragtime waltz, an early, innovative melding of jazz and classical influences.

A free concert preview begins at 3:15 p.m. in the Sierra Room. The preview, hosted by conductor David Bugli, will include discussions with Madeline Eastman and guest conductor Timothy Reynolds about the concert, composers, arrangers, and music.

"On the Jazzy Side" is made possible in part by a grant from the Nevada Arts Council, a state agency, and the National Endowment for the Arts, a federal agency; and by private donations. The concert preview is supported by a grant from Nevada Humanities. For more information, see CCSymphony.com or call 775-883-4154.

Treat your whole family: tickets are $15 general admission; $12 for seniors, students, and Symphony Association members; and free for youth age 16 and under.
