HOLIDAY TREAT FEATURES SYMPHONY, CHORUS, & VICTORIAN DANCERS

It's a Holiday Treat for all - seasonal and holiday music in many styles! The Carson City Symphony presents the 29th annual Holiday Treat concert on Sunday, December 9, 4:00 p.m., at the Bob Boldrick Theater in the Carson City Community Center, 851 E. William Street.

The Symphony will be joined on the program by the new Carson City Symphony Chorus, directed by Michael Langham, and the Victorian Dancers, directed and choreographed by Norma Conway.

Pre-concert entertainment by Carson High Music Ensembles begins at 3:00 p.m. in the lobby. The Symphony, conducted by Music Director/Conductor David Bugli, will perform Glorious Sounds of Christmas, Festive Sounds of Hanukah, Waltz of the Flowers from "The Nutcracker," David Bugli's arrangement of Spanish language carols, En Esta Noche Tan Fría (On this very cold night), and more. Norma Conway's Victorian Dancers will appear in Morning Papers Waltz.

The Carson City Symphony Chorus will sing Michael Langham's arrangement of All is Well. The orchestra will join them for Fantasia on Christmas Carols by Ralph Vaughan Williams and Rudolph the Red-nosed Reindeer by Johnny Marks. Performers and audience will join together for the Holiday Treat tradition, A Christmas Singalong.

The concert is made possible, in part, by grants from the Nevada Arts Council, a state agency, and the National Endowment for the Arts, a federal agency, and by private donations.

Treat your whole family: tickets are $15 general admission; $12 for seniors, students, and Symphony Association members; and free for children age 16 and under. Tickets are available in advance at Play Your Own Music in the Carson Mall, by mail (see form on back of newsletter) online at CCSymphony.com, or at the door.
