

Carson City Symphony Opens 33rd Season

Poets, Priests, Puppets, & Piano—Oct. 16

The Carson City Symphony, directed by David Bugli, opens its 33rd season on Sunday, October 16, at 4:00 p.m., with a "Poets, Priests, Puppets, & Piano" concert at the Carson City Community Center's Bob Boldrick Theater, 851 E. William Street in Carson City. The concert features guest piano soloist Maria Fomina.

Tickets are $15 general admission; $12 for seniors, students, and Symphony Association members; and free for youth age 18 and under. Get tickets at the Carson City

Visitors Bureau (716 N. Carson St.), online at CCSymphony.com, or at the door. Season tickets at discounted prices are available from the Symphony at 775-883-4154.

The program includes Poet and Peasant Overture by Suppé, Suite from Coppélia by Delibes, War March of the Priests by Mendelssohn, and Piano Concerto No. 1 by Beethoven. Pre-show entertainment by the Symphony Flute Duo (Edith Isidoro Mills and Carol Grenier) in the lobby begins at 3:00 p.m.

Originally from Moscow, Maria Fomina studied in Russia and in the U.S., and earned a Master of Music Degree in Piano Performance from the Manhattan School of Music. She has performed with orchestras since age eight. Winner of several international competitions, Fomina has performed solo recitals and with orchestras throughout the world.

This concert is part of World Music Days, an annual global event affirming the ideals of tolerance, friendship, and shared humanity, inspired by the life and work of journalist and musician Daniel Pearl. It also celebrates National Arts and Humanities Month, a coast-to-coast collective celebration of culture in America. We are supported in part with public funding through the Nevada Arts Council and the National Endowment for the Arts. For information, see CCSymphony.com or call 775-883-4154.

"Meet The Soloist" Preview

A concert preview on Oct. 16 begins at 3:15 p.m. in the Sierra Room. It will include discussions by Conductor David Bugli with soloist Maria Fomina about the concert, composers, and music.

An Elegant Evening Piano Recital, Oct. 14

Please join us for a very special evening of music, conversation, and refreshments on Friday, October 14, at 7:00 p.m. at Genoa Lakes Resort, 1 Genoa Lakes Drive, off Jacks Valley Road in Genoa, Nev. The recital features our guest soloist, award-winning pianist Maria Fomina, playing light classical solo works. Tickets are $30 for general admission, $25 for Carson City Symphony Assoc. members, and $5 for youth age 18 and under. Tickets are available online at CCSymphony.com, at the Carson City Visitors Bureau (716 N. Carson St.), or by calling the Symphony at 775-883-4154 for reservations.

Carson Chamber Singers Fall Concerts, Oct. 28 and Nov. 1

Carson Chamber Singers, conducted by Michael Langham, present its 2016 Fall Concerts on Friday, October 28, at 7:30 p.m. at St. Mary's in the Mountains, 111 S. E Street in Virginia City, and on Tuesday, November 1, at 7:30 p.m. at Shepherd of the Sierra, 3680 US Highway 395 South in Carson City.

Tickets are $10, available online at CCSymphony.com; at the Carson City Visitors Bureau, 716 N. Carson St., Carson City; and at the door. Youth ages 18 and under are admitted free.

The concert includes Renaissance music by Palestrina, Zingarelli, Purcell, and others. A highlight is the Nevada premiere of Requiem for the Living, written by Dan Forrest in 2013 and performed internationally. The Requiem, accompanied by an instrumental ensemble, emphasizes consolation for the living rather than grief and judgment. Forrest said he took inspiration, in part, from images of space from the Hubble Telescope and images of Earth from the International Space Station.

Rosemary Nebesky Scholarship Launched

We are proud to launch an instrumental music scholarship for Carson City students age 5 to 17. The annual scholarship was established by a generous gift from Jennifer and John Webley in memory of Rosemary Nebesky, former board member and friend of the Carson City Symphony Association.

The award of $250 to $1,000 is to further the student's music education. It can be used for lessons, workshop, summer camp, master class, etc. Funds will be paid to the teacher or program, not to the individual applicant.

An application form can be downloaded from the Symphony website, CCSymphony.com, and is available from school music teachers. Completed applications and supporting documents will be accepted by the Symphony at P.O. Box 2001, Carson City, NV 89702-2001, and must be received by Tuesday, November 1.

Association Memberships & Contributions

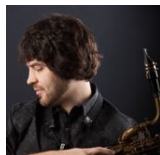

Members and donors – your financial contributions, string instrument donations, program advertisements, and volunteer services support our educational and artistic programs for people of all ages. We thank you for making it all possible!

We recognize members in concert programs and with special invitations, discounts on tickets, and more. Not a member yet? Please join us, and find out if your employer makes matching grants! Membership info: 775-883-4154.
