Carson City Symphony Concert Feb. 26 with Guest Composer/Soloist Brian Landrus

The Carson City Symphony, directed by David Bugli, presents its first concert in 2017 on Sunday, Feb. 26, at 4:00 p.m., with a "Celebrations Old & New" concert at the Carson City Community Center's Bob Boldrick Theater, 851 E. William Street in Carson City. The concert features guest composer/soloist Brian Landrus in Jeru Concerto for Baritone Saxophone and Orchestra and Arrow in the Night.

The program also includes A Festival Prelude by Alfred Reed, Symphony No. 5 ("Reformation") by Mendelssohn, and Carmen Suite No. 1 by Bizet. Pre-show entertainment by members of STRAZZ youth strings begins at 3:00 p.m. in the lobby.

Brian Landrus, an outstanding nationally recognized artist, was born and raised in Nevada and earned his Bachelor's Degree at UNR. He went on to earn degrees in jazz composition and jazz saxophone from the New England Conservatory. He has toured the world with jazz superstars, founded a recording label to release his original music, and has received widespread recognition and awards. See BrianLandrus.com

Tickets are $15 general admission; $12 for seniors, students, and Symphony Association members; and free for youth age 18 and under. Get tickets at the Carson City Visitors Bureau (716 N. Carson St.), online at CCSymphony.com, by mail with the form on the back of this newsletter, or at the door.

We are supported in part with public funding through the Nevada Arts Council and the National Endowment for the Arts. For information, see CCSymphony.com or call 775-883-4154.

"Meet The Soloist" Preview

Reno Philharmonic in Carson City, Feb. 13

Join the Reno Phil and world-renowned pianist, Conrad Tao, on Monday, Feb. 13, 7:30 p.m., at the Carson City Community Center. The program, Classix Four: Temptation, is a collection of works rife with love jealousy, and passion just in time for Valentine's Day. The concert, featuring music by Mozart, Prokofiev, and Dvořák, will also be performed in Reno on Feb. 12 and 14. General admission tickets are $30 for adults, $24 for seniors, and FREE for age 18 and under. Discounts are available for Military members, Carson City Symphony patrons, and college students. Contact the Reno Phil Box Office at 775 323-6393.

Artist-in-Residence Workshops

Funded in part by grants from the Nevada Arts Council

Multi-instrumentalist Todd Green held a workshop for advanced string students on Jan. 28 at Empire Elementary School. He demonstrated more than 30 string, flute, and percussion instruments from around the world, gave students an opportunity to play the instruments, and performed an original work with them.

All Ages Jazz Workshop - Brian Landrus will present a free workshop on ensemble performance, solo improvisation, technique, and more, on Tuesday, February 28, Carson Middle School, 1140 W. King St., Carson City. The first session, 3:30-5:30 p.m. is for student jazz musicians; the second session, 7:00-9:00 p.m., is for advanced student and adult jazz musicians. Call 775-883-4154 for information and registration.

Rosemary Nebesky Scholarship Winners

Carlos Montejano and Alyssa Butler were awarded the first annual Rosemary Nebesky Memorial Scholarships by the Association in December. This scholarship, established by John and Jennifer Webley of Santa Rosa, Calif., is awarded each year to Carson City students age 5 to 17 for instrumental music lessons.

Carlos Montejano, 16, a junior at Carson High School, sings in the Carson High School Chamber Choir, loves classical music, and composes and arranges music for orchestra, band, and choir. His scholarship is for piano lessons with Nancy Mielke, a retired music specialist in the Carson City School District.

Alyssa Butler, 10, a fifth grader at St. Teresa of Avila School, has studied violin for four years and wants to learn cello. Her scholarship is for cello lessons with Lou Groffman, principal cellist of the Carson City Symphony. The next round of scholarships will be in fall of 2017. For more information, contact the Symphony at 775-883-4154.
