

Carson City Symphony Opens 35th Season

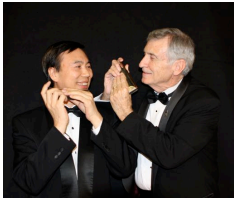

Harmonica Gala - Oct. 21

The Carson City Symphony, directed by David Bugli, will open its 35th season on Sunday, October 21, 2018, at 4:00 p.m., with a Harmonica Gala concert at the Carson City Community Center's Bob Boldrick Theater, 851 E. William Street in Carson City. The concert features guest harmonica soloists Jiayi He and Tom Stryker.

Tickets are $15 general admission; $12 for seniors, students, and Symphony Association members; and free for youth age 18 and under. Tickets are on sale at the Nevada Day Office, 716 N. Carson St.; online at CCSymphony.com; or at the door. Season tickets at discounted prices are available by mail (see form in this newsletter) or by calling 775-883-4154.

The program includes classical and jazzy selections, and features music by Verdi, Vivaldi, Smetana, Arthur Benjamin, John Barnes Chance, and others.

Originally from China and now residing in New York, Jiayi

He has received numerous awards in international competitions, and has soloed with orchestras in the US and China, and recorded for movies, radio stations, and CDs. Tom Stryker has performed throughout the world with harmonica ensembles, orchestras, and jazz bands, and is past president of SPAH, the Society for the Preservation and Advancement of the Harmonica.

The Sunday concert celebrates National Arts and Humanities Month, a coast-to-coast collective celebration of culture in America. The 2018-19 concert season is supported by a grant from the Nevada Arts Council and the National Endowment for the Arts.

Pre-show entertainment in the lobby by the Aria 51 Trio (Danielle Hunt, Julie Holloman, and Evan Stern) begins at 3:00 p.m.

"Meet The Soloists" Preview

A concert preview on Oct. 21 begins at 3:15 p.m. in the Sierra Room. It will include discussions by Conductor David Bugli with soloists Jiayi He and Tom Stryker about the music, composers, instruments, and music. The preview is funded in part by Nevada Humanities and the National Endowment for the Humanities.
