

Carson City Symphony ~ 200th Concert

Balance & Nature - Feb. 24

Celebrating its 35th season, the Carson City Symphony, directed by David Bugli, will perform its 200th concert, "Balance & Nature," on Sunday, February 24, 2019, at the Carson City Community Center's newly refurbished Bob Boldrick Theater, 851 E. William Street in Carson City. Featured guest soloist, saxophonist Rhett Bender, will perform the premiere of the orchestral version of Duality for alto saxophone and orchestra by Carleton Macy. The composer will attend the concert, which also includes Verdi's Nabucco Overture, and Beethoven's Symphony No. 6 (Pastorale).

Tickets: $15 general admission; $12 seniors, students, and Symphony Association members; free age 18 and under. Tickets are on sale at the Nevada Day Office, 716 N. Carson St., online at CCSymphony.com, or at the door.

Dr. Rhett Bender is a Professor of Music at Southern Oregon University Performing Arts, where he teaches saxophone, clarinet, and chamber music. He performs and teaches throughout the U.S. and in Chengdu, China. In the summers, Bender is the Director of the Ashland Chamber Music Workshop and the Siskiyou Saxophone Workshop. He is a founding member and soprano saxophonist with the Mazama Quartet and Globe Saxophone Quartet and is the Conductor of the Cascade Clarinet Consort and the Siskiyou Saxophone Orchestra. The February 24 concert will be Bender's second as soloist with Carson City Symphony.

Carleton Macy, Professor Emeritus of Music at Macalester College in Minnesota, is a composer, performs on several instruments, and has an active interest in non-Western music. His compositions have been performed throughout the U.S., and in Europe and Asia. He wrote Duality originally for saxophone and wind ensemble, and dedicated the work to Rhett Bender.

The Symphony's 2018-19 concert season is supported, in part, with public funding through the Nevada Arts Council and the National Endowment for the Arts.

Pre-show entertainment by the Da Capa duo - Susan Cross-Stanley, flute, and Jim Stanley, clarinet - begins at 3:00 p.m. in the lobby.

Concert Preview begins at 3:15 p.m. in the Sierra Room. It will include discussions by Conductor David Bugli with soloist Rhett Bender and composer Carleton Macy about the music, composers, and instrument.
